Oh okay, got it! Hopefully, soon we can get you acquainted with our Code Enforcement Officers, who currently respond to some if not most of those calls.

In speaking with the Public Safety Manager, Ken Mckay he advised something similar. Not sure, if CEO's have an open case on this as well. I will follow up with the Supervisor to see who is handling if at all. That way there is a team effort on this approach.

Thank you. This helps. I can send a letter requesting a meeting.

Basically there's a resident that complained that homeless people park there for a long time (sometimes for several days). I plan on meeting with the property owner to see if they can install "no long term parking" signs and make it that vehicles would be towed if they park there overnight.
